PROJECTS

Your-Recipe-Box

December 2024

- This digital recipe box application is an easy-to-use web app that enables users to input ingredients, instructions, and categorize recipes for quick retrieval.
- The app offers a paperless solution to recipe storage, providing a clean and responsive user interface with Bootstrap while utilizing JavaScript for functionality and interactivity.

README-O-MATIC

January 2025

- A Node.js application that guides users through a series of prompts about their project and automatically generates a well-structured, personalized README based on their responses.
- Built with JavaScript, it streamlines the documentation process, ensuring clarity and consistency for any project.

Build-Your-Ride

January 2025

- This application lets users create a new vehicle or choose from saved ones, then perform different actions based on the vehicle's capabilities.
- Utilizing object-oriented programming (OOP) principles, it employs class-based structures to encapsulate properties and methods, ensuring modularity and code reusability.

EDUCATION
